lage fare, these markets are held on fixed days at specified places. Tushar Agarwal, director of the Swami Samarath FPC, says such markets offer alternative marketing platforms to farmers. However, he says, there is a need to re-examine the way marketing is done for these initiatives. "At present the focus is on the urban markets. However much work is needed to attract farmers to participate in such markets," says Agarwal. Pointing to the case of such markets closing
